Peter H. Arkison, the Trustee in the bankruptcy case of Alexander McLaren, joins in the Motion of Appellees, Thomas Hsueh, Triton Engineering, Inc., and Triton-America, LLC, for Dismissal of Appeal.

As set forth in the Motion, this case is replete with delay after delay brought on by the Appellants.

In its Minute Order dated May 5, 2015, after approving the withdrawal of Ms Fullmer for leave to withdraw the Court said, in bold type,:

If appellants wish to retain substitute counsel, they shall do so and arrange for the new attorney or attorneys to appear. Until and unless an attorney appears on behalf of Trustee's Joinder in Support of Motion to Dismiss Appeal - 1

1 appellants, appellants will be deemed to be proceeding pro se. Appellants are ADVISED
2 that, if they choose to proceed pro se, they will have an obligation to keep the Court
3 apprised of their contact information and to provide the Court with any changes, of address, and they will be expected to comply with the rules and order of this Court and will be held to the same standards as lawyers authorized to practice before this Court.

4 Lawyers admitted to practice before this Court are expected to comply with deadlines set
5 by statutes, Court Rules, and Court Orders. The Motion to Dismiss was filed on July 14, 2015.
6 An attorney who is diligently representing the clients would have noted the missed deadline and 7 immediately taken some action to correct it, probably by promptly filing the missing brief or 8 asking for an extension. As of August 1, 2015, over 30 days after the brief was due, the 9 Appellants had filed nothing with respect to the brief.

10 There have been more than enough extensions given to the Appellants. It is now time
11 for the appeal to be dismissed.

12 Dated: August 5, 2015.
